Salem Citizens In Shake Up

Machine skids and overturns,
Occupants escape serious injury.

A Ford automotive occupied by Drs. John Hayden Jr., and H. H. Wolff, of Salem, Ky., skidded at third and broad sets., at 12 o'clock last night and turned turtle. Both miraculously escaped serious injuries.

Drs. Hayden and Wolff were en route home from Paducah in the former's car. They were going south on Third street and on striking the "S" curve at Elizabeth street which turns on to Broad street the car suddenly overturned. They sustained only slight injuries but the machine was badly damaged. It was taken to a garage for repairs and Drs. Hayden and Wolff returned home today. —Paducah News Democrat.
